1. The writer states his desire for God's _____ and _____. (v 41-43)
 - a. His desire focused on _____. (v 41)
 - b. He wants and _____ for those who taunt. (v 42)
 - c. His hope is in God's _____. (v 43)
2. The writer speaks about love _____ (v 43-46)
 - a. God's revealed Word out true _____. (v 43)
 - b. The point: God's holy law _____ and _____. (v 47)
 - c. The law defines God's _____ in which the writer delights. (v 47-48)
3. The writer is _____. (v 47-48)
 - a. The writer's love for the _____. (Gk: perichoresis)
 - b. Our love, now _____ can begin to reflect this love.

Summary and Application:

- 1) Holy living in gratitude to God is the point.
- 2) We love our God for His first having loved us. Now we should love Him, as well, for His holiness, justice and mercy.
- 3) God's law defines love. The law is a revelation of His character.
- 4) A day will come in which we will be overjoyed because of Christ's return, vindicated, in glory, to judge the nations. Ps. 98:9
