Before Thee, God, Who Knowest All

Let us kneel before the Lord our God and corporately confess our sins unto Him.

LORD God of heaven, great and awesome God, You keep covenant and mercy with those who love You and observe Your commandments. Please let Your ear be attentive that You may hear the prayer of Your servants, confessing our sins against You. We have acted very corruptly against You, and have not kept the commandments, the statutes, nor the ordinances which You command us. Yet You commanded Your servant Moses, 'If we return to You, and keep Your commandments and do them, You will gather us' and make us the chosen dwelling place for Your name. You have redeemed us by Your great power. O Lord, please be attentive to the prayer of your servants, and grant us mercy in Your sight. We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen! (from Nehemiah 1) (Silent prayer)

Assurance of Pardon

The Almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and remission of all your sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of His Holy Spirit.

Thanks be to God! Our sins are forgiven in Jesus' name. AMEN!

Ascension - God Consecrates us by His Word; we listen & offer ourselves to Him

Minister: The Lord be with you.

Congregation: And also with you.

Minister: Lift up your hearts!

Congregation: We lift them up to the Lord!

Minister: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God!

Congregation: It is proper and right to do so!

Minister: Truly it is proper, right and our bound duty, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto You, holy Father, Almighty, everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord; Who was in every way tempted as we are, yet did not sin; by Whose grace we are able to triumph over every evil, and to live no longer unto ourselves, but unto Him Who died for us and rose again. Therefore, with angels and archangels and all the host of heaven and with Your Church on earth, we laud and magnify Your glorious Name, evermore praising You, singing:

Announcements

LORD'S SUPPER

We observe Communion, or the Lord's Supper, weekly in our midst.

We believe it is worthily received by those who:

1. Have been baptized in the name of the Triune God (Matt 28:18-20);
2. Do profess faith in the Lord Jesus Christ as the Son of God, and Savior of sinners, and do rest upon Him alone for salvation as He is offered in the Gospel (Ro 10:9-10);
3. Do live in humble reliance upon the grace of the Holy Spirit and endeavor to live as becomes the followers of Jesus Christ (Gal 5:16-26); and
4. Are communing members in good standing in an evangelical church (1 Cor 10:1-6)

If these things are all true, we rejoice with you and invite you to commune with us at the Lord's Supper. If any of these are not true of you, we ask that you refrain. We invite you to speak to one of the Elders if you have doubts or questions regarding any of these beliefs, or if you are interested in learning more about Trinity.

Though collections are not ordinarily taken during a service, giving is a vital element of worship. Tithes and offerings may be placed in the wood box on the rear wall of the sanctuary.

March 3, 2024
Third Sunday of Lent

The simple, unadorned cross reminds us of God the Son's climactic act of service for humanity. He allowed his arms to be stretched out on the cross bar, and with his feet they were nailed to the tree. Thus, he voluntarily gave himself up to death for the sins of his people. Paul tells us that the Gospel is "the message of the cross...to us who are being saved is the power of God" (1 Co 1:18).

The color used in the sanctuary in anticipation of Easter is purple or violet. These colors symbolize both the pain and suffering leading up to the crucifixion of Jesus as well as the suffering of humanity and the world under sin. But purple is also the color of royalty, and so anticipates through the suffering and death of Jesus the coming resurrection and hope of newness that will be celebrated in the Resurrection on Easter Sunday.
