

Study Notes – June 9, 2024

“May the day perish on which I was born”
Cursed Conception; Birthday Blackness
Job 3

1. From seven days of silence to cursing the day of his birth with language from the days of creation (3:1-10)
2. Kings, the unborn, infants, wicked, the weary, prisoners, oppressors and servants all find rest in death – Job wonders why he has he not died (3:11-19)
3. Light and life, misery and bitterness, sighing and groanings, fear and dread remain with Job, but not ease, quiet or rest. (3:20-26)

224 N Hine Ave, Waukesha, WI 53188

(262) 894-8768

www.trinitypresbyterianwi.org

Teaching Elder: Jeff Pennington (262/968-6769)