

Study Notes – July 14, 2024

“Job Continues: Oh, that You would hide me... I will wait, till my change comes”
Job 13-14

1. Job continues his answer against the friends.
  - A. Job wants to speak to Shaddai because the friends are worthless liars, deceivers. (13:1-12)

  - B. Because he is confident that he is blameless before God, Job is prepared and prefers to meet God in death, rather than wait for his accusers to kill him. (13:13-19)

2. Job speaks to God, seeking justice/vindication, whether in life or death.
  - A. Job's two preliminary requests and questions of God (13:20-28)

  - B. General suffering of mankind, yet a picture of resurrection hope from a tree (14:1-12)

- C. Job seeks change of his situation even if it means death, yet death brings its own futility that haunts him. (14:13-22)