“Knaves or Kings; Useless Religion or Pure Religion”
James 1:25-27

1. True religion is restraining one's tongue and speaking rightly. This is how the King rules and how we are to learn to act like kings (1:26).
2. Pure religion is caring for Christ's afflicted people, the least of His brethren. This is how the King visits His people and what it means for us to exercise biblical kingship (1:27a).
3. Unstained religion is allegiance to the risen King of the world not to the world. This is how the King lived and died in submission to His Father's will and how we become dangerous as His kingdom of priests (1:27b).
