Election Sermon: “Princes Get their Rule from Christ; Don’t Trust Princes”

1. Civil government is ordained of God, in the hands of the Mediator.
2. Civil rulers receive their commission and authority under Christ.
3. The duty and dignity of civil rulers, as the ministers of Christ:
  - A. to uphold the kingdom of Christ
  - B. to preserve and secure the people’s liberties and properties
  - C. to hear complaints and redress the grievances of the governed
4. The duty and privilege of the people under the administration of X’s rulers:
  - A. to pray for them
  - B. to support our rulers
  - C. to not put trust in our rulers, but in the LORD of rulers
